You don't know much about the process of finding and applying for external funding? This series is for you! In just three days, you will

- learn to use the various databases, particularly Pivot,
- identify relevant opportunities, and
- learn how to study a funder and plan an application.

You will also get introduced to campus resources and will be fast-tracked for working with OGFA.

Day 1 - Introduction to the process of finding good fit funding opportunities

Day 2 - Navigating funding databases and organizing a list of awards

Day 3 - Researching funding organizations and planning a funding campaign

DRAFT-WRITE-REPEAT: 3 DAY WRITING WORKSHOP

JULY 19, 21, 26, 28 | 10AM – 12:30PM

Planning to apply for a major competitive fellowship in the next six months? If so, this workshop series is for you! Over the course of four sessions, this intentional and engaging workshop series will:

- provide structured time to get started on the application
- refine skills needed for successful application writing.
- offer a one-on-one feedback session with consultants from the FSU Reading-Writing Center.

Day 1 - Plan. Research the funder and the award, review criteria, make checklist and set goals.

Day 2 - Draft. Getting started with communicating your research and your fit. Thinking holistically across an application.

Day 3 & 4 - Edit. Receive feedback, edit, edit more. Set up a plan to turn what you have into a complete application.
