

Fellowships and Awards for International Students

2019-2020

Getting Started

Things to consider...

- ◇ Identify funding opportunities based on “Fit”
(Discipline, Demographics, Travel, etc.)
- ◇ Organize funding search results
- ◇ Dedicate time and attention to prepare and/or request application components
- ◇ Commit to the Writing and Revision Process
(Draft, Review, Revise, Repeat, Repeat, Repeat, Repeat)
- ◇ DEADLINES - Know the application cycle for each award
- ◇ NOTE: Awards are typically disbursed about 6-12 months after the application submission window closes. This means that you are applying a year in advance for most awards.

Application Components

Award applications have a lot of moving parts. To develop a strong and compelling fellowship application, determine:

1. Is the funding opportunity a good fit for you, your research, ambitions, study and/or personal interests?
2. Are you a good fit for the funding opportunity?
3. KNOW YOUR AUDIENCE - Who are the reviewers? What are they looking for (mission of the funding opportunity, criteria for review)?
4. Typical application components
 - ◇ Personal Statement
 - ◇ Research Proposal
 - ◇ Curriculum Vitae (CV) or Resume
 - ◇ Letters of Recommendation
 - ◇ Timeline and Budget Justification

Not all components listed are applicable for every application

Scholarships, Fellowships, and Awards that Accept Applications from Non-US Citizens

APS/IBM Research Internship for Undergraduate Women

Internships are salaried positions typically 10 weeks long at one of three IBM research locations (San Jose, CA, Austin, TX, or Yorktown Heights, NY), and give the opportunity to work closely with an IBM mentor. The Watson lab has a full range of research, as does the Almaden lab, and the Austin lab focuses on software and systems. Research areas of the internship are individually chosen to optimize the match between the skills and interests of the student, and the ongoing research programs of the laboratory.

No citizenship restriction. Deadline: January 31

To be eligible, applicants must be:

- Must be female with sophomore or junior standing at a U.S. college or university at the time of application
- Must be majoring in chemistry, physics, materials science or engineering, computer science or engineering, chemical, electrical, mechanical engineering, or biology, if it has an emphasis on one of the other areas listed
- Must have a minimum 3.0 GPA

Academic Council on the United Nations System (ACUNS) - Dissertation Writing Awards Program

The award recognizes students who are writing graduate-level dissertations on topics related to the United Nations system. ACUNS is a global professional association of educational and research institutions, individual scholars, and practitioners active in more than 50 countries in the work and study of multilateral relations, global governance and international cooperation. Deadline: January 2020

Acumen Fund Fellowship

The Global Fellows Program is a 12-month fellowship for individuals dedicated to serving the poor and who have the business and operational expertise, and moral imagination needed to effect long-term social change. The fellowship begins with an eight-week training program in the Acumen New York office, where Fellows learn about business models for the poor, hone their leadership skills, and learn more about Acumen. After training, each Fellow works for the CEO or senior management of an Acumen investee on a critical business issue facing the organization. Deadline: August 11

American Center of Oriental Research Scholarships and Fellowships

The foundation offers a series of monetary grants and fellowships based on research within the Asian continent, and is open to various nationalities. This is available to pre-doctoral and post-doctoral students. Deadline: February 1

Allen Lee Hughes Fellowship and Internship Program

Individuals interested in artistic and technical production, arts administration and community engagement. Fellowships are designed for recent graduates (undergraduate or graduate) and career changers interested in pursuing a career in the professional theater. Fellowship provides a modest stipend and is intended to increase participation of people of color in the arts. Deadline: 2019/2020 season applications closed. 2020/2021 season applications will be available November 2020. See website for additional details.

Amelia Earhart Fellowships (Zonta International Foundation)

Women of any nationality pursuing a Ph.D./doctoral degree who demonstrate a superior academic record in the field of aerospace-related sciences or aerospace-related engineering are eligible. Applicants must be registered in a full-time Ph.D./doctoral program when funds are received in September and will not graduate in the following semester. Please note that post-doctoral research programs are not eligible for the Fellowship. Members and employees of Zonta International or the Zonta International Foundation are also not eligible to apply for the Fellowship. Current fellows may apply to renew the Fellowship for a second year and will undergo the same application and evaluation procedures as first-time applicants. Deadline: November 15

American Architectural Foundation and Sir John Soane's Museum Foundation Traveling Fellowship

Graduate Fellowships provide a $6000 award for students in graduate degree programs in art history, architecture, interior design, and decorative arts. The fellowship funds a research residency at the Soane Museum oriented towards academic research related to any aspect of the work of Sir John Soane or Sir John Soane's Museum. Deadline: March 1

American Nuclear Society (ANS) Graduate Scholarship

A series of scholarships (ranging from $1,000- $5000) for either undergraduates or graduates in nuclear science and technology. U.S. and non-U.S. applicants must be ANS student members enrolled in and attending an accredited institution in the United States. Deadline: February 1

American Association for University Women - International Fellowships

International Fellowships are awarded for full-time study or research in the United States to women who are not U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Both graduate and postgraduate studies at accredited U.S. institutions are supported. Applicants must have earned the equivalent of a U.S. bachelor's degree by September 30, 2014, and must have applied to their proposed institutions of study by the time of the application. Up to five International Master's/First Professional Degree Fellowships are renewable for a second year. Deadline: November 15

American Foreign Service Association's Advocacy and Government Affairs Internship

Advocacy and Government Affairs Internships for graduate students interested in international affairs, advocacy/grassroots mobilization, communications, stakeholder engagement, and the U.S. Foreign Service. Fall (September-December) and spring (January-May) interns are expected to work at least two full days a week (equivalent of 16 hours), for which they receive a $450 stipend. Summer (June-August) interns, who must be available full-time, receive $550. Note that all interns are responsible for arranging their own housing and covering their own expenses. Deadline: July 15

Belgian American Education Fund, Inc.

The foundation offers fellowships for study or/and research in the United States. In addition to the amounts indicated, BAEF also pays for health insurance at the US institution. Fellows are Belgian citizens, who are expected to stay in the USA for a full academic year at a US institution or for a full year to do research institution.

Deadline: October 31.

Cambridge Overseas Trust

Established by the University of Cambridge, UK in order to support international students. Offers full and part scholarships at all levels applications are made to the University, not the trust. Some scholarships require additional application to a funding partner. Deadline: December 3

Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) internships

CSIS offers full and part-time internships in the fall, spring and summer for undergraduates, advanced students, and recent graduates who are interested in gaining practical experience in public policy. Applicants must be eligible to work in the U.S, and at least a college junior in good standing, an advanced student or a recent graduate.

Deadlines: early August (Fall), late November (Spring), mid-March (Summer).

Charles G. Koch Summer Fellow Program

The Charles G. Koch Summer Fellow Program offers internships in public policy located in Washington, DC, and at state-based policy organizations across the country featuring a $4,800 stipend. Applicants must be eligible to work in the U.S. Deadline: Admissions into the program is competitive and done on a rolling basis.

Charlotte W. Newcombe Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship

Designed to encourage original and significant study of ethical or religious values in all fields of the humanities and social sciences, and particularly to help Ph.D. candidates in these fields complete their dissertation work in a timely manner. In addition to topics in religious studies or in ethics (philosophical or religious), dissertations appropriate to the Newcombe Fellowship competition might explore the ethical implications of foreign policy, the values influencing political decisions, the moral codes of other cultures, and religious or ethical issues reflected in history or literature. Applicants must be candidates for Ph.D. or Th.D. degrees in an American doctoral program at a graduate school located in the United States, and in the writing stage of his or her dissertation. Candidates working on D. Min., law, Psy.D. Ed.D. and other professional degrees are not eligible. Deadline: November 15

Dumbarton Oaks Fellowships

Dumbarton Oaks offers residential fellowships in three areas of study: Byzantine Studies (including related aspects of late Roman, early Christian, Western medieval, Slavic, and Near Eastern studies), Pre-Columbian Studies (of Mexico, Central America, and Andean South America), and Garden and Landscape Studies. Fellowships are open to graduate students and doctoral candidates. Deadlines vary. Non-US citizen applicants should check their visa status before applying. Deadline: November 1

Davis-Putter Scholarships

Need-based grants (up to $6,000) to undergraduate or graduate students who are able to do academic work at the college level, and are actively working for peace and justice. Grantees must receive college credits for the time period covered by their grant. Open to non-US citizens who are attending an accredited university. Deadline: April 1

Echoing Green Foundation Fellowships

Provides seed funding and support to more than 450 social entrepreneurs with bold ideas for social change in order to launch groundbreaking organizations around the world. A stipend of $60,000 for individuals ($90,000 for 2- person partnerships) paid in four equal installments over two years. Must demonstrate sufficient English fluency to participate in interviews and Echoing Green events. The fellowship includes the Global Fellowship, the Black Male Achievement Fellowship, and the Climate Fellowship. Deadline: October 16

Elizabeth Greenshields Foundation Grant for Artists

Awards five grants in the amount of $15,000 (Canadian) and subsequent grants $18,000 each. No age limit but applicants must be at least 18 years of age at the time of submitting the application. Not for those pursuing abstract or nonrepresentational art. Rolling deadline.

Environmental Research and Education Foundation

Scholarships are awarded by EREF to recognize excellence in master's, doctoral or post-doctoral waste management research and education. Applicants will be this year or are now a full-time master's student, doctoral student or a post-doctoral researcher.

Deadline: December

Future Leaders Forum Student Scholarship Program

The Association for International Agriculture and Rural Development (AIARD) administers a competitive scholarship program to nurture and to provide partial financial support to students attending the AIARD Annual Conference and the annual Future Leaders Forum in Washington, D.C. Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis to students who have a sincere interest in international agriculture and rural development issues and their solutions. Undergraduate or graduate students, foreign and American are encouraged to apply. Deadline: March 29

Finlandia Foundation National Trust Scholarship

The Foundation invites high-quality projects on a competitive basis that relate to past, present or future of Finnish and Finnish-American culture and are characterized by MANY of the following: receives favorable attention and has a high profile and visibility; appeals to all Americans, not only ethnic Finns; involves worthy activity for children and young adults to assure an interest in Finnish and Finnish-American culture by future generations; can be replicated or become a permanent addition to the cultural life of a community; has a detailed budget, income and expenses; and adds to the body of research about Finnish and Finnish-American culture. Deadline: January

Gates Cambridge Scholarships

Gates Cambridge Scholarships are prestigious, highly competitive full-cost scholarships. They are awarded to outstanding applicants from countries outside the UK to pursue a full-time postgraduate degree in any subject available at the University of Cambridge. One to three years of study in any discipline at Cambridge University. Candidates apply directly through Cambridge. Deadlines: Non-US citizens - December 2019 or January 7 dependent on course

Hellenic Times Scholarship Fund

For undergraduate and graduate students of Greek descent, undergraduate or graduate, and between the ages of 17 and 25. Applicants must be enrolled in an accredited College or University in the United States for the academic year 2014-15. Applicants may be graduate or undergraduate students. Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of necessity and merit. Deadline: February 19

Herbert Scoville Jr. Peace Fellowships

For college graduates to serve 6 – 9 months with a participating organization of their choice in Washington DC while receiving a stipend. Prospective Fellows are expected to demonstrate excellent academic accomplishments and a strong interest in issues of peace and security.

Graduate study, a college major, course work, or substantial independent reading that reflects the substantive focus of the fellowship is also a plus. Prior experience with public-interest activism or advocacy is highly desirable. U.S. citizens and applicants with a visa are able to apply. Deadline: October 7 (Spring), January 6 (Fall)

Humane Studies Fellowships

For current or prospective full-time graduate students (including law students) interested in the classical liberal/libertarian tradition of individual rights and market economies. More than 100 fellowships from $2,000 to $15,000 are awarded annually.

Deadline: December 1

Inter American Press Association (IAPA) Scholarship

The Inter American Press Association was established in 1942 to defend and promote the right of the peoples of the Americas to be freely informed through an independent press, essential for which is a journalism that is responsible, objective and open to all currents, so as thus to contribute to a better understanding among the peoples of the Western Hemisphere. Applicants must be natives of countries in the Western Hemisphere, journalists or students in the final year of their journalism course, be between 21 and 35 years old, and be fluent in the language of the country where they will go to study.

Journalism students will have to complete their university studies before the start of the scholarship year. Applicants from the United States and Canada should have documentation from a recognized authority confirming fluency in Spanish, or Portuguese for those going to Brazil. Latin American applicants will have to undergo a TOEFL test (Test of English as a Foreign Language). Deadline: January 31

International Dissertation Research Fellowship (IDRF)

The Mellon International Dissertation Research Fellowship (IDRF) offers nine to twelve months of support to graduate students (of any citizenship) in the humanities and humanistic social sciences who are enrolled in PhD programs in the United States and conducting dissertation research on non-US topics. Fellowship amounts vary depending on the research plan, with a per-fellowship average of $20,000. The fellowship includes participation in an SSRC-funded interdisciplinary workshop upon the completion of IDRF-funded research. Deadline: November 5

Jack Kent Cooke Undergraduate Transfer Scholarships

Community college students who are sophomores or recent alumni. Open to all fields of study at any accredited university in the US. Meant to enable community college students to transfer to a 4-year institution in order to complete a bachelor's degree. Award is up to $30,000 per year for an average of 2.5 years. Deadline: November 20

Japan-IMF Scholarship Program for Advanced Studies

A two-year program intended to help Japanese nationals obtaining Ph.D. degrees in macroeconomics and preparing them to work as economists at the International Monetary Fund (IMF). JISP covers all reasonable expenses for two years of graduate study.

Deadline: January 31

Josephine de Karman Scholarships

Approximately 8 fellowships, $22,000 for graduate students and $14,000 for undergraduate students, will be awarded for the regular academic year (fall and spring semesters or the equivalent where the quarterly system prevails), paid through the fellowship office of the university in which the recipient is enrolled for study in the US. DeKarman fellowships are open to students in any discipline, including international students, who are currently enrolled in a university or college located within the United States.

Only candidates for the PhD who will defend their dissertation in or about June 2016 and undergraduates entering their senior year (will receive bachelor's degree in June 2016) are eligible for consideration. Postdoctoral and master's degree students are not eligible for consideration. Special consideration will be given to applicants in the Humanities.

Deadline: January 31

Leader of the Pack Scholarships

Provides funding for students who completed two semesters at NCSU and intend to remain there. Applicants must also be recognized by their community as leaders.

Deadline: September 30

MacDowell Colony Residencies

250 fellowships to artists in seven disciplines (architecture, music composition, film and video, interdisciplinary art, theatre, visual art, and literature). Applicants who are in a degree program as of the date of application are ineligible for a residency and therefore cannot apply. Residents receive room, board, and exclusive use of one of the 32 studios on the property. Deadlines: Summer: January 15, Fall: April 15, Winter/Spring:

September 15

Mayo Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowship (SURF) Program

$5000 research fellowships for undergraduate students dedicated to scientific research alongside professional biomedical scientists. International students at US universities are able to apply. Deadline: February 1

Microsoft Scholarships

Various scholarships for undergraduate students interested in computer science and related technical disciplines. One-year award for students attending institutions in the United States, Canada, and Mexico, required that the student complete a salaried summer internship. Deadline: January 31; application will reopen in October

National Association of Black Journalists (NABJ) Scholarships

NABJ awards scholarships annually to deserving students interested in pursuing careers in journalism. Scholarships are worth up to $2,500. All applications must be submitted online by the specified deadline. Student members of NABJ, foreign or American born, currently attending or entering an accredited four-year college/university in the U.S. or those who are candidates for graduate school are eligible for up to $2,500 per year.

Deadline: April 19

Newman Civic Fellows Award

The Newman Civic Fellows Award honors inspiring college student leaders who have demonstrated an investment in finding solutions for challenges facing communities throughout the country. Through service, research, and advocacy, Newman Civic Fellows are making the most of their college experiences to better understand themselves, the root causes of social issues, and effective mechanisms for creating lasting change. These students represent the next generation of public problem solvers and civic leaders.

Deadline: October 31

Nicholl Fellowships in Screenwriting

The Norway-America Association (NORAM) is a non-profit organization that since 1919 has helped Norwegian students to study in North-America, and American students to study in Norway. NORAM awards approximately five scholarships for Americans students who will attend graduate school or do PhD research here. Applicants must be members of the Norway-America Association (NAA) and must have completed a minimum of a Bachelor's degree. Award amounts range from $ 2,000 to $20,000. Deadline: April 1

Paul and Daisy Soros Foundation Fellowship for New Americans

For seniors or recent graduates to pursue up to two years of graduate study in any field and in any advanced degree- granting program in the United States. Each award is up to $25,000 in maintenance grants and up to $20,000 in tuition support for each year of graduate study supported, a total of as much as $90,000.

The program is intended to support individuals who will continue to regard the U.S. as their principal residence and focus of national identity. This fellowship is eligible to people who fall into one of the following categories: naturalized US citizen; will have a valid green card by the application deadline; US citizen by birth but neither of your parents were US citizens at the times of their births; born outside of the US and adopted by American parents or awarded US citizenship as a result of your adoption; you have granted deferred action under the government's Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program.

Deadline: November 1

P.E.O. International Peace Scholarship Fund

The International Peace Scholarship Fund is a program, which provides scholarships for selected women from other countries for graduate study in the United States and Canada. Members of P.E.O. believe that education is fundamental to world peace and understanding. The maximum amount awarded to a student is $10,000. Lesser amounts may be awarded according to individual needs. Deadline: December 15 eligibility form

Jennings Randolph Peace Scholar Dissertation Fellowship Program

The Jennings Randolph Program for International Peace awards Peace Scholar Dissertation Fellowships to students enrolled in U.S. universities who are researching and writing doctoral dissertations on topics related to international conflict management and peacebuilding. Proposals from all disciplines are welcome. Deadline: September 24

Rhodes Scholarships for Non-U.S. Citizens

1-3 years of study at Oxford University for citizens of Australia, Bangladesh, Bermuda, Canada, Commonwealth Caribbean and Jamaica, Germany, Hong Kong, India Kenya, Malaysia, New Zealand, Pakistan, Singapore, South Africa, Uganda, Zambia, and Zimbabwe. Deadline: Late Spring, early Summer

Rotary Peace Scholarships

Rotary Peace Fellows are leaders promoting national and international cooperation, peace, and the successful resolution of conflict throughout their lives, in their careers, and through service activities. Fellows can earn either a master's degree in international relations, public administration, sustainable development, peace studies, conflict resolution, or a related field, or a professional development certificate in peace and conflict resolution. Proficiency in English is required, and proficiency in a second language is recommended.

Deadline: May 31

Student Action with Farmworkers: Sowing Seeds for Change Fellowship

The Sowing Seeds for Change Fellowship is a 6-month leadership development program for college students and recent graduates to improve farmworkers' access to healthcare as well as advocate for improved living and working conditions. No mention of U.S. citizenship, however applicants must be college students or recent graduates from U.S. universities. Deadline: February 4

Samuel Huntington Public Service Fellowship Award

Stipend of $15,000 for a graduating college senior to pursue public one year of service anywhere in the world. The award allows recipients to engage in a meaningful public service activity for one year before proceeding on to graduate school or a career.

Deadline: January 17

South Pacific and East Timor Scholarship Programs

The United States–South Pacific Scholarship Program, authorized by the U.S. Congress and funded by the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the U.S. Department of State, is a competitive, merit-based scholarship program that provides opportunities for Master's degree study at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa in fields that are directly relevant to the development needs of Pacific island countries. Professional degrees (law, architecture, medicine) are not funded. Individuals who have dual citizenship, one being that of the United States, are not eligible. U.S. non-citizens and U.S. permanent residents are also not eligible. All scholarship recipients must be able to meet the requirements of the Exchange Visitor (J-1 visa) program. Deadline: February 1

Student Academy Awards

The Student Academy Awards is a national student film competition conducted by the Academy and the Academy Foundation. Each year 500-college and university film students from all over the United States compete for awards and cash grants, with films being judged in four categories: Animation, Documentary, Narrative, and Alternative. Film students outside the United States are honored as well. Deadline: June 1

Thermo Scientific Pierce Scholarship Program

Thermo Fisher Scientific is offering our future science scholars an opportunity to win $10,000 in scholarship funding for the Fall 2015 semester. This scholarship was created to help provide educational opportunities for the future generation of scientists. Graduate students or undergraduate students must be enrolled in an accredited college for the Fall 2015 semester to qualify for this scholarship, and majoring in biology, chemistry, biochemistry, or a related life-science field.

A pre-selected committee will award two $10,000 scholarships and four $5,000 scholarships among the candidates. To qualify for the scholarship, students must have a GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale) and be enrolled in an accredited college for university for the Fall 2014 semester. In addition to these qualifications, students must also be legal United States residents, meaning that students possessing appropriate Visa status in order to study in the United States are also eligible. Deadline: May 20

AT&T Researchers Fellowship — Inventing the Science Behind the Service

Scholarships for students in Masters of Library Science graduate program. This fellowship offers three-year fellowships to outstanding underrepresented minority and women students pursuing PhD studies in computing and communications fields. US Citizenship or residence is NOT a requirement, but students must have a US social security number.

Each summer, research interns from universities all over the US come to AT&T Labs Research for 10 weeks to work with AT&T Researchers on exciting, real-world research projects. Candidates are typically graduate students but advanced undergraduates will also be considered in exceptional cases. Deadline: January 15

UNESCO/Japan Young Researchers' Fellowship Programme Fellowships

Young researchers with advanced degrees (M.A., M.Sc. or equivalent) from developing countries majoring in one of our areas: environment, intercultural dialogue, information and communication technologies, and peaceful conflict solution. Deadline to submit application to the National Commission: November 29

Woodrow Wilson Dissertation Fellowships in Women's Studies

The Woodrow Wilson Women's Studies program, the only national fellowship for doctoral work on issues of women and gender, supports dissertation writing for Ph.D. candidates in the humanities and social sciences doing interdisciplinary and original work on these issues. Applicants must be enrolled in a Ph.D. program in the United States.

Deadline: October 15

Youth Activity Fund Grant

The Youth Activity Fund Grant supports high school students and college undergraduates. Its goal is to foster a new generation of explorers dedicated to the advancement of the scientific knowledge of our world. Awards range from $500 to $5,000. We recommend keeping your budget realistic. The average award is approximately $1,500. Only a few grants may be awarded at the $5,000 level. Grants are normally given to the following disciplines or topics in the biological sciences. There is no explicit mentions of citizenship or eligibility requirements. Deadline: November 5

FOR ALL AWARDS LISTED BELOW, SEE WEBSITE FOR ADDITIONAL AWARD DETAILS AND DEADLINES

American Association of Medical Colleges

A series of grants and awards honoring individuals in the fields of medical education, research, and community service.

Alexander Graham Bell Association College Scholarship Program

Students who were diagnosed with hearing loss before the age of seven are eligible for a merit-based scholarship ranging from $1,000-$10,000.

Armenian Students Association of Americas Scholarships

Full-time students of Armenian ancestry are eligible to apply for scholarships of $500 to $1,500 per year. Applicants should either have US citizenship or have the appropriate visa status. Applicants should be able to demonstrate financial need and good academic performance.

Asian Cultural Council Grants and Fellowships

Any gifted individual artist or scholar who seeks to grow in his or her craft or field can apply for funding to conduct research and study, receive specialized training, undertake observation tours, or pursue non-commercial creative activity in the United States or among the countries of Asia.

American Scandinavian Foundation

The American-Scandinavian Foundation (ASF) offers over $500,000 in funding to Scandinavians to undertake study or research programs (usually at the graduate level) in the United States for up to one year. Candidates for awards are recommended to the ASF by our cooperating organizations.

In order to apply submit applications to the appropriate cooperative organization (see below). Awards are made in all fields. Eligible candidates must be citizens of one of the following countries: Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway or Sweden.

American Institute for Economic Research (AIER)'s Summer Fellowship Practicum

AIER's Summer Fellowship Practicum program introduces accomplished college students, postgraduates and graduate students to the Institute's mission, work, and research principles. Working closely with AIER research staff, summer fellows are immersed in the economic research process from "conception to completion". The AIER Practicum enhances Fellows' understanding of economic concepts, theories, and real world applications, and provide an opportunity to develop research, writing, and presentation skills. To be eligible, you must fit the following criteria: either a graduate or a senior college student majoring in economics, finance, business or related fields. Non-US students can apply if they are enrolled in a U.S. degree granting institution, have CPT or OPT, or have employment authorization in the United States.

Albright Institute Fellowships

The Albright annually provides up to $330,000 in fellowships and awards to 32 recipients. In addition, 32 Associate Fellows including Senior, Post-Doctoral, and Research Fellows receive funding from other sources. Fellowships are open to students and scholars in Near Eastern studies from prehistory through the early Islamic period, including the fields of archaeology, anthropology, art history, Bible, epigraphy, historical geography, history, language, literature, philology and religion and related disciplines. The research period should be continuous, without frequent trips outside the country. Residence at the Albright is required. The option to accommodate dependents is subject to space available at the Albright.

American Institute of the History of Pharmacy Grant

The American Institute of the History of Pharmacy wishes to encourage academic research within its scope. Therefore, it offers a grant-in-aid totaling $2,000 or more annually to a graduate student to reinforce historical investigations of some aspect of pharmacy, whether ancient or modern, to pay research expenses not normally met by the university granting the degree. Any thesis project devoted to the history of pharmacy, history of drugs, or other humanistic study utilizing a pharmaco-historical approach, is eligible if based in an institution of higher learning of the USA. The graduate student need not be an American citizen; nor does the research topic need to be in the field of American history.

Asian Development Bank (ADB) - Japan Scholarship Program

The award aims to provide an opportunity for well-qualified citizens of ADB's developing member countries* to pursue postgraduate studies in economics, management, science and technology, and other development-related fields at participating academic institutions in the Asian and Pacific Region. Upon completion of their study programs, scholars are expected to contribute to the economic and social development of their home countries. The ADB-JSP enrolls about 300 students annually in participating academic institutions located in 10 countries within the region, and provides full scholarships for one to two years.

Bibliographical Society of America Fellowship Program

The Society invites applications for its seventh annual Katharine Pantzer Senior Fellowship in Bibliography and the British Book Trades as well as its annual short-term fellowships, all of which support bibliographical inquiry and research in the history of the book trades and in publishing history. Eligible topics may concentrate on books and documents in any field, but should focus on the book or manuscript (the physical object) as historical evidence. Such topics may include establishing a text or studying the history of book production, publication, distribution, collecting, or reading. Stipend amounts vary.

BMI Foundation Student Awards

BMI Foundations offers a series of scholarships for various music and art related fellowships and awards. Some geographical restrictions may apply. Most scholarships are open to citizens of a country in the Western Hemisphere, but require either current or previous attendance at a US university.

Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW)

The Fellowships and Awards Program supports graduate study, literacy, and the creative arts through awards and grants ranging from $2,000 to $11,500. Numerous fellowships available to graduate students. Eligibility is restricted to women, and those who are either Canadian citizens or permanent residents in Canada.

Canon Collins Scholarship for Masters Study in the UK

Canon Collins offers a variety of scholarships and funding for nationals or those with refugee status from Angola, Botswana, Lesotho, Malawi, Mozambique, Namibia, South Africa, Swaziland, Zambia, or Zimbabwe. This scholarship partners with specific UK institutions to fund full tuition fees, a monthly stipend, a return economy flight, a settling-in allowance and other support whilst in the UK.

Chevening Scholarship Program

Chevening Scholarships are the UK Government's global scholarship programme, funded by the Foreign and Commonwealth Office (FCO) and partner organizations. The scholarships support study at UK universities – mostly one-year Master's degrees – for individuals with demonstrable potential to become future leaders, decision makers and opinion formers. To be eligible you must be a citizen of a Chevening-eligible country (see map for details), and intend to return there for a minimum of two years after your Chevening Award has finished. People with dual British citizenship cannot apply, unless you are a citizen of a British Overseas Territory or hold BN (O) and are applying from Hong Kong. Deadlines vary by country.

Christine Mirzayan Science & Technology Policy Graduate Fellowship Program

The Christine Mirzayan Science & Technology Policy Graduate Fellowship Program provides early career individuals with the opportunity to spend 12 weeks at the National Academies in Washington, DC learning about science and technology policy and the role that scientists and engineers play in advising the nation. Each year, applicants from around the world become part of a National Academies' committee, board, or unit where they are assigned to a mentor and learn about the world of science and technology policy.

The program is open to US citizens, US permanent residents, and non-US citizens who hold the following visas: F-1 students using CPT (curricular practical training); F-1 students using OPT (optional practical training); J-2 dependents; J-1 students using academic training; J-1 research scholars with written approval of their Responsible Officer; DACA recipients; and adjustment applicants, refugees, asylees, and selected other visa classes.

Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan

Scholarships and fellowships vary by nationality/country. Click the link to view the countries' current scholarship offerings. Commonwealth citizens are open to apply. This is intended to fund postgraduate study or doctoral research at Commonwealth.

Confucius China Studies Program Joint Research Ph.D. Fellowship

Will accept applications from both non-US citizens, other than citizens of Mainland China, Hong Kong, Macao, and Taiwan and US provided they be enrolled in a US institution.

DAAD Study and Research Scholarships

Apply for scholarships funding study, research and/or internships in Germany and at German universities. Preference will be given to students whose projects or programs are based at and organized by a German university. Scholarships are available either as part of an organized study abroad program or as part of an individual, student-designed study abroad semester or year.

Elie Wiesel Foundation for Humanity - Prize in Ethics

Essay contest for full-time juniors or seniors that is open to full-time undergraduate juniors and seniors at accredited U.S. four-year colleges and universities. International and non-citizen students, as well as students studying abroad are eligible, as long as they are registered as full-time juniors or seniors at their home institutions in the U.S. Contestants must have a faculty advisor. Prizes range from $500 - $5,000.

Fulbright Foreign Student Program

Educational exchanges that strengthen understanding and communication between the United States and over students from 140 countries. Students interested in applying for the Fulbright Student Program must apply through the Fulbright Program Office in their home country.

The Finnish Cultural Foundation

The Swedish-Finnish Cultural Foundation seeks to promote and develop cultural and economic life in Finland by providing support for increased knowledge of, and contact between, the culture, economy, and people of the two countries. The foundation disperses project subsidies and travel grants. For more information, contact them at fonderna@hanaholmen.fi.

Ford Foundation Postdoctoral Fellowship Program

The Ford Foundation seeks to increase the diversity of the nation's college and university faculties by increasing their ethnic and racial diversity, to maximize the educational benefits of diversity, and to increase the number of professors who can and will use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. Eligibility to apply for a Ford fellowship is limited to: all citizens, nationals and permanent residents (holders of a Permanent Resident Card) of the United States, and individuals granted deferred action status under the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals Program.

ISA Educational Foundation Scholarships

ISA Educational Foundation Scholarships are awarded to college or university students who demonstrate outstanding potential for long-range contribution to the fields of automation and control. The scholarship awards support tuition and related expenses and research activities and initiatives. For information about applying, call (919) 549-8411.

Onassis Foundation Scholarships

Offers scholarships for Greek graduate for postgraduate and doctoral studies outside of Greece. Offers research grants and educational scholarships in the Humanistic Sciences, Political Science, Law and Economics, Architecture, Fine Arts, Music, Dance, Theatre, Photography, Cinema.

Organization of American States (OAS) Fellowships

This organization offers general scholarships for undergraduate and graduate study. All applications must be submitted through the corresponding National Liaison Office in your country. OAS academic scholarships are awarded for no more than two years of full-time studies at any university in an OAS member state, with the exception of the applicant's sponsoring country.

The Google Anita Borg Memorial Scholarship: USA

In her honor, Google is proud to honor Anita's memory and support women in technology with the Google Anita Borg Memorial Scholarship. Google hopes to encourage women to excel in computing and technology and become active role models and leaders in the field. Google Anita Borg Scholarship recipients will each receive a $10,000 award for the 2015-2016 academic year. A group of female undergraduate and graduate students will be chosen from the applicant pool, and scholarships will be awarded based on the strength of each candidate's academic background and demonstrated leadership.

To be eligible, an applicant must:

- be a female student currently enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student at a university for the 2014-2015 academic year
- intend to be enrolled in or accepted as a full-time undergraduate or graduate student at a university in the United States for the 2015-2016 academic year
- majoring in computer science, computer engineering, or a closely related technical field
- maintain a strong academic record
- exemplify leadership and demonstrate passion for increasing the involvement of women in computer science
- Citizens, permanent residents, and international students are eligible to apply.

John Bayliss Radio Scholarship

The Bayliss Foundation has been distributing scholarships to outstanding broadcast students for over 23 years. Each award is $5,000.

The number of scholarships awarded depend on the size of the endowment. Open to juniors and seniors majoring in Broadcast Communications. Although financial need is a consideration, students of merit with an extensive history of radio-related activities are given preference.

Kosciuszko Foundation

The Kosciuszko Foundation is pleased to announce the opening of the application process for a special tuition scholarship program for undergraduate students of Polish descent. A $2,000 scholarship will be offered to 30 promising undergraduate students studying in the USA and pursuing degrees at the intersection of media, communication, political science, social studies, law and administration. Students seeking careers in media, government, and public affairs are particularly encouraged to apply. Must be a U.S. citizen of Polish descent or a Polish citizen with permanent residency status in the U.S.

Margaret McNamara Memorial Fund Grants

Awards five to six grants to women from developing countries about $12,000 each year to help further their education and strengthen their leadership skills to improve the lives of women and children in the developing world. Women must be enrolled in accredited.

Mariam K. Chamberlain Fellowship in Women & Public Policy

In honor of pioneering feminist economist Mariam K. Chamberlain (MKC), IWPR offers a fellowship in public policy to a promising scholar each year. Eligible candidates should have at least a bachelor's degree in a social science discipline (such as sociology, psychology, education, or public policy), statistics, economics, mathematics or women's studies. There are no citizenship requirements specified, but you must be able to work in the United States. The Mariam K. Chamberlain Fellow contributes to a variety of research projects to inform policies affecting women. Responsibilities include reviewing and compiling literature and information; collecting, checking and analyzing data; preparing reports and report graphics; fact checking and editing; and attending relevant Congressional briefings, policy seminars and meetings.

Phi Kappa Phi Fellowships

The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi currently awards fifty-one Fellowships of $5,000 each and six at $15,000 each to members entering the first year of graduate or professional study. Each active Phi Kappa Phi chapter may select one candidate from among its local applicants to compete for the Society-wide awards. To be eligible, you must be an active member of Phi Kappa Phi or have accepted membership by June 30 of the year in which you are applying. You must also have applied to enroll as a full-time student in a post-baccalaureate program of study for the current academic year. Accredited international institutions are acceptable, and international students can apply.

Phillips Exeter Academy Fellowships & Internships

Phillips Exeter Academy is a co-educational residential school serving 1000 students in grades 9 through 12, and even post-graduate level. The school offers one-year internships that vary depending on need of the institution. The three fellowships offered are the Dissertation Year Fellowships, Writer in Residence (George Bennett Fellowship), and the John and Elizabeth Phillips Fellowships.

Rotalia Foundation

The primary goal of this foundation is to provide financial support to various activities associated with Rotalia, such as academic scholarships, travel grants, and to support Rotalia's publications, libraries, archives, conferences and sporting events. Scholarships and research grants for individuals in the U.S. and abroad who read, speak, and understand Estonian. Grants are given at all levels – undergraduate, graduate, postgraduate, and for research. The foundation is particularly interested in supporting qualified individuals in the U.S. to study in Estonia, and individuals in Estonia to study in the U.S. For more information, contact Rotalia at rotalia@rotalia.ee.

Smithsonian Fellowships

Unless noted otherwise, all Smithsonian fellowships (graduate, pre-doctoral, post-doctoral, senior) opportunities are open to non-US citizens. Applicants are evaluated on their academic standing, scholarly qualifications, experiences, the quality of the research project or study proposed and its suitability to Smithsonian collections, facilities, and programs.

South East Asian Studies Summer Institute (SEASSI) Tuition Fellowships

United States and international students can apply for SEASSI's tuition scholarships to reduce the fees of the summer institute. FLAS funding can also be used to pay for the summer institute. SEASSI offers course instruction in Burmese, Hmong, Javanese, Indonesian, Khmer, Lao, Tagalog, Thai and Vietnamese. The majority of these scholarships are awarded to graduate students, but outstanding undergraduates and professionals are encouraged to apply.

Statens Lanekasse for Utdanning

Provides educational grants and loans for Norwegian students abroad. Citizens of an EEA or EFTA country who have accrued rights in Norway are also eligible. Normally, grants are only given to people who have a consecutive period of at least two years of residency in Norway during the five years before the education begins. Applicants must be in at least their sophomore year of undergraduate study. Apply for funding as soon as you are accepted to your desired program of study.

The Sweden-American Foundation

Awards approximately 40 fellowships for graduate, postgraduate and post-doc studies in the U.S. and Canada. Only Swedish citizens with a completed undergraduate degree are eligible to apply. Every year, the Sweden-America Foundation awards approximately 40 fellowships for Graduate, Postgraduate and Post Doc Studies in the United States and Canada.

Swiss Benevolent Society of New York Scholarships

Merit based awards for study at the undergraduate, graduate, and professional levels both in the U.S. and abroad. To be eligible, the applicant must be or have parents who are Swiss nationals. Applicants for Pellegrini and Zimmerman scholarships and the OSA award must be residents of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania or Delaware. Applicants for Medicus grants for study in Switzerland must reside in the United States.

Swiss Friends of the USA

The Company Swiss-American Society awards per year CHF 15'000-20'000 on scholarship contributions. These contributions are intended as a funding supplement and be in 5-7 candidates who are either Swiss or have long ties with Switzerland. This scholarship is oriented to those who want to continue their education in the United States with the goal of a university degree.

National Health Policy Journalist Training

Candidates applying for the training must demonstrate a commitment to serving communities of color to better cover health care and consumer issues.

Wellcome Trust Sanger Institute Vacation [Summer] Placements

The Vacation Scholarship is intended to provide promising undergraduates with 'hands-on' experience of research during the summer vacation and to encourage them to consider a career in research. This fellowship is only open to EU students or any student at a UK university who is eligible to work full-time in the UK.

Worldstudio AIGA Scholarships

Undergraduate or graduate students pursuing degrees in the fine or commercial arts, design or architecture, and plan to enter a career in the creative professions. Applicants must be citizens of the United States or be in possession of a Green Card.

Scholarship Databases:

- International Scholarship Search
- Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute (CHCI) NextOpp Search Engine
- Undocumented Students - 1,000 Degrees
- Act on a Dream at Harvard Scholarship Search Engine
- Undocumented/Immigrant Scholarship List
- Open Society Institute (OSI) Individual Fellowships and Scholarships

Resources

Office of Graduate Fellowships and Awards
Office of National Fellowships
The Career Center

External Databases

<http://www.rackham.umich.edu/funding>
<https://www.grad.illinois.edu/fellowship/>
<http://gradschool.cornell.edu/fellowships/>
<https://grad.ucla.edu/funding/>