Funding Your Graduate Education

Dr. Adrienne P. Stephenson, Director
Carson Bay, Assistant Director
Office of Graduate Fellowships and Awards (OGFA)
Getting Started

• Explore Funding Databases and Sites
• Generate a list of funding opportunities with the following in mind
  • Award timeline
  • Application components
  • Supporting documents
• Request additional support in advance
  • Review of application materials
  • Letters of recommendation
• Identify 2-3 sets of eyes to review your documents
Funding
Internal vs. External

Internal

✓ Departmental Assistantships, Scholarships & Awards
✓ FSU Graduate School Fellowships/Awards
  http://gradschool.fsu.edu/Funding-Awards

External

✓ Government
  • DOD, NSF, Fulbright, AHA
✓ Foundations and Institutes
  • Ford, Hertz
✓ Organizations and Societies
  • Society of Women Engineers, P.E.O., AAUW
Why You Should Apply
(what you get)

• Ongoing Professional Development
  • Practice an effective articulation of the “So What” factor
  • Development of writing skills
  • Early career preparation
  • Portfolio Enhancement

• Funding Support ($$$

• Recognition

• Experience engaging application processes
Finding the Right Fellowship for You

• Demographics (gender, nationality, ethnicity, etc.)
• Research (may be discipline specific)
• Potential (future goals)
• Travel
  - Research
  - Language acquisition
  - Study
  - Teaching (English?)
Opportunities at Every Stage

• Doctoral
  • Predoctoral
  • Various stages throughout the doctoral program
  • Dissertation Completion

• Master’s
  • Particularized awards for first-year graduate students

• Specialist
  • Opportunities related to but formally detached from degree programs
Write down 3-5 keywords related to your field of study, work in action and/or research interest
Write down 3 names of people that you can reach out to today to review your documents and provide feedback
Where should you look?

Non-US Citizen Opportunities
OFFICE OF GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
FALL 2018 WORKSHOP SERIES

Personal Statement Workshop - Non-Native English Speakers
September 12 | 12:00-1:00pm | Hecht House Conf Room
September 18 | 1:15-2:30pm | Hecht House Conf Room
October 1 | 10:00-11:00am | Hecht House Conf Room
In this session, staff from the Center for International English Studies (CIES) will cover vocabulary, phrases, and organizational patterns needed to draft a strong personal statement suited for various kinds of fellowship applications. Participants of the first workshop will be invited to the follow-up workshops on Sept 18 and Oct 1, where community, time, space, and assistance with strengthening writing skills and revising draft documents will be provided.

Crafting a Competitive Personal Statement
September 12 | 2:00-3:00pm | HSF 3009
Writing about yourself can be difficult; however, the Personal Statement is a critical component in any fellowship application. In this session, Leah Sibbitt (Career Center) will give tips and suggestions on how to craft and craft a competitive personal statement.

Funding Graduate Education/Interactive Database Search
September 14 | 1:00-2:30pm | HSF Great Hall
Identifying prospective external fellowships and awards is the first step in the fellowship application process. In this session, learn how to navigate the comprehensive funding database, Pivot. The goal is to conduct a funding search and create a fellowship action plan with your research, interests, needs, and a reasonable timeline in mind. Please bring your laptop or tablet.

The Basics of Proposal Writing
September 19 | 11:00am-12:00pm | HSF Great Hall
Mike Mitchell (Office of Proposal Development) will facilitate a workshop focused on persuasive writing techniques for proposals. Topics include: introduction to proposal writing, essential points to address in the application, look for in a winning proposal, and tips and strategies to support clear, concise, interesting and persuasive writing.

Foreign Language Research & Study Opportunities
September 26 | 1:00-2:00pm | HSF 3008
This workshop introduces opportunities to study particular languages overseas. We discuss opportunities for funding such study: the Critical Language Scholarship, DAAD, the Boren Fellowship, and others. We will provide an overview of awards and application processes and provide space for questions. Think outside the box with career planning!

Writing the Curriculum Vitae - CV/Resume Workshop
October 2 | 2:00-4:00pm | HSF 3009
Learn what and what not to include on your resume or CV. Think of your audience and consider the mission / vision of the sponsoring agency. Leah Sibbitt (Career Center) will offer valuable advice, tips, and strategies for writing an effective resume/CV. At the end of this workshop, discipline-specific Career Center Liaisons will be present to review your CV and provide individualized feedback.

Navigating Grant Resources as FSU
October 3 | 1:00-2:00pm | HSF 3008
Does your department have a Grants Office Administrator? Come learn about grant resources on FSU’s campus for assisting grantees with navigating pre- and post-award administration for government-related (i.e., public) funds. Susan Wells (Sponsored Research Administration) will facilitate the workshop and answer any questions.

Letters of Recommendation and Cover Letters
October 4 | 2:00-3:00pm | HSF 3009
Letters of recommendation are often key components of fellowship applications and generally constitute your first impression. A letter of recommendation paints a picture of who you are as an applicant. Learn how to craft your cover letter and request letters of recommendation, what should go into these critical documents, and tips to facilitate the request and follow-up for the submission of strong letters.

* Register for workshops at ogfa.fsu.edu/workshops
All workshops qualify for PFF & PFP credit
Contact Information

The Office of Graduate Fellowships and Awards
Honors, Scholars, Fellows House
127 Honors Way

ogfa-info@fsu.edu
ogfa.fsu.edu
850-645-0850

Twitter: @ogfafsu
Facebook: /ogfafsu