OGFA Networking Event

September 26 | 5:30 - 7:30 PM

HSF Great Hall (in-person)
Register Here

Join us for an in-person Networking Event aimed at fostering peer to peer support networks between students interested in applying for EXTERNAL fellowships and awards. Get out of your disciplinary silos, grab a bite to eat, learn about fellowships and awards, and meet other FSU graduate students!

Getting Started with Application Writing

September 11 | 10:00 AM
Register Here

Applying for a fellowship or grant but stuck on the blank page? Join OGFA and the Reading-Writing Center (RWC) for a hybrid workshop aimed at generating ideas, brainstorming and freewriting, and getting started with the writing process. Join via Zoom or in-person in HSF 3008.

Developing Your Scholarly/Professional Identity

September 24 | 2 PM
Register Here

Applying for fellowships and grants requires communicating who you are, what you do, and why it matters. In this workshop, we'll discuss how to communicate effectively in writing your scholarly or professional identity, including your broader impacts and values, and how to link that identity to funding applications.

Journal Editing & the Peer Review Process

October 10 | 11:00 AM
HSF Great Hall (in-person)
Register Here

Are you interested in learning more about academic journals, understanding what peer-reviewers look for, and discovering how to peer-review papers? Dr. Deana Rohlinger, Professor of Sociology (COSSPP), and Editor in Chief of Social Science Computer Review will facilitate this in-person workshop on the ins and outs of academic journals.

Application Editing and the Revision Process

October 15 | 12:00 PM
Register Here

Facilitated by the Center for Intensive English Studies (CIES), this workshop is intended to support English language learners who are interested in developing their fellowship and award application writing and editing skills. This workshop will focus on developing skills for editing and revising.

CV/Resume Workshop with the Career Center

October 30 | 12:00 PM
HSF 3008 (in-person)
Register Here

CVs and Resumes are an important part of your scholarly and professional profiles. Join OGFA and the Career Center for an in-person workshop on preparing high-impact CVs and Resumes! Time allowing, we'll also provide feedback on your CV/Resume!
